

SOCIETY AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Herman McCarthy 224 Sycamore st., pleasantly entertained a number of friends at her home Wednesday evening in celebration of their 20th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent socially with refreshments served near the close.

Mrs. Edgar Parvia was hostess to the Tipperary club members Wednesday afternoon at her home, 515 E. Washington av. The afternoon was spent with needlework and games with refreshments served near the close. In the contests Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. George Myers won the favors. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. George Myers, S. Carroll st.

Miss Ruth Vaness, Edwardsburg rd., was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, the occasion being her 16th birthday anniversary. Games and music with contests at which Miss Violet Zaehle and James Fuller won the prizes completed the evening's entertainment. A two-course luncheon with covers for 24 guests was enjoyed at the close.

The officers of the Woman's Benefit association of the Lady Macbees will give a St. Patrick's thimble at Beyer hall Friday afternoon from 2:30 until 5 o'clock. An excellent program consisting of readings by Miss Flossie Floran, and Miss Elizabeth Beyer; instrumental solos by Miss Lillian Cohn and Miss Inez Zilky, with a vocal duet by Miss Eldora Zears and Mrs. George Gall and solos by Miss Ruby Wiffong and Rachael Cohn will be given. Music will also be furnished by the Lyric quartet. Toward the close refreshments will be served and the pretty decorations about the hall will be in keeping with the St. Patrick's season.

The Woman's Missionary society of Conference Memorial United Brethren church held a thimble at the home of Mrs. L. F. Gerber, 115 Ohio st., Wednesday. The time was spent with social diversions and at noon a delicious St. Patrick's dinner was served by the hostess. Covers were laid for 25 guests.

Mrs. J. Steiner, 807 Prairie av., was hostess to members of the N. C. P. club Wednesday afternoon. Needlework was a feature of the afternoon with a luncheon near the close. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Glen Welch, Blaine av.

The department of literature, section one, of the Progress club met in the club rooms Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. N. G. Dahm acting as leader assisted by Miss Gena Thompson. Book X of the Odyssey was read and discussed. The next department meeting will be March 29, to give the teachers who are members an opportunity to attend.

Mrs. C. Mooney, 729 Diamond av., was hostess at the fortnightly meeting of the Diamond Thimble club Wednesday. The afternoon was given to the reading of a paper on "Adolescence" by Mrs. Frank Keller. Roll call responses were Bible verses. During the social part of the day the hostess served refreshments. In two weeks the club is to meet with Mrs. Otto Dalrymple, Diamond av.

Mrs. Arthur T. Cook, 1305 Lincoln way E., was hostess to members of the Mothers' Literary club Wednesday afternoon. The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. H. M. Kinzie, Mrs. John Sears, Mrs. Edward Whitman. A pleasant social time followed with the serving of refreshments. The club will meet on March 29 with Mrs. G. H. Heideman, 1307 Lincoln way E.

The Shakespeare circle was entertained by Mrs. Alex Staples, 518 W. Wayne st., Wednesday. Mrs. H. E. Westervelt contributed the current events for the day, Mrs. W. B. Stover gave a paper on "Attos, Our Most Western Possession," and Mrs. P. H. Brugger had the cities of Alaska as her topic for discussion. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served. Mrs. George Fulmer, 1028 S. Michigan st., will act as hostess at a meeting March 29.

A meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of Grace M. E. church was held in the social parlors of the church yesterday. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. C. H. Smith. Mrs. L. C. Kreidler gave a pleasing paper on the subject of "Home Missions and the Educative Force," and leaflets were read by Mrs. E. G. Jessup, Mrs. Wesley Miller and Mrs. George Gall. Refreshments were served. The society will have another meeting in the church parlors April 19.

The Woman's Literary club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. Hale Jackson at her home.

An Attractive Motor Coat

By La Raconteuse.

Motor coats hold as important a place in the wardrobe of the well dressed woman today as ever. The models shown are attractive. Pepper and salt mixture is introduced in this smart haring coat which has large roomy sleeves and a high rolled collar, both of which are trimmed with glazed kid.

314 W. Marion st. A delightful program was presented by Mrs. R. G. Page on "Compliments" and Mrs. Cyrus E. Patten, whose topic was "Agnes Repplier." At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served. Members of the club will meet March 29 with Mrs. John P. Reynolds, sr., 620 W. Lasalle av.

Members of Mrs. Emil Reyer's Sunday school class of Grace M. E. church met in the church parlors Tuesday evening to make preparations for their part of the program to be given this evening at the church. Miss Lena Braeckley, Miss Martha Braeckley and Mrs. W. F. Nitche were hostesses for the evening and towards its close served refreshments. No time has been set for the next social meeting of the class.

Members of the North Side Culture club enjoyed an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. J. Crumpacker, 1149 Portage av. Kreutzer's sonata was given by Mrs. F. C. Koos and Mrs. L. M. Hammerschmidt and a book review of "Prison Life in Siberia" by Dostoevski. Current events were given in answer to roll call. Dainty refreshments were served late in the afternoon, and the club will have its next meeting with Mrs. Homer Robinson, 1061 Riverside dr., March 29.

The Woman's Bible class, 5-A, met on Wednesday with Mrs. L. P. Shirk, 119 E. Marion st., for the weekly lesson study which was given from the Book of Judges by Miss May Applegate. The class will meet next week with Mrs. Shirk.

The March meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of St. Paul Memorial church was held at the home of Mrs. Emma Willard, 630 W. Washington av., Wednesday. Mrs. Hattie Cornish was leader for the afternoon. The Rev. Babb addressed the members, speaking on the subject of "Tithing." Mrs. Babb gave a reading, "When the Deacon Talks in the Church," "Christ Arisen," a victrola number, was given during the afternoon and refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Sarah McCollough, 2308 S. Michigan st., will be hostess at the meeting on April 19.

Mrs. D. K. Spitzer, 1212 Lincoln way W., was hostess at a meeting of the Wednesday Thimble club yesterday afternoon. For the Cookbook

GRAPE JUICE WHIP.

Materials—One cup grape juice, ½ cup water, 2 tablespoons orange juice or 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ cup sugar, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatin.

Utensils—Earthen or agate bowl, measuring cup, lemon squeezer, tablespoon.

Directions—Soak gelatin in ½ cup cold water 10 minutes; place cup over hot water until dissolved, then add to grape juice, sugar and orange juice. Stir until sugar is dissolved, then beat with wire eggbeater until light and set. This amount will make a quart if correctly whipped. Serve in ice cream glass with whipped cream or marshmallow.

BREADCRUMB GRIDDLE CAKES.

Materials—One cup dry bread crumbs, 1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 tablespoon salt, 2 cups milk, 1 tablespoon melted butter or olive oil, 1 tablespoon molasses, 1 well-beaten egg.

Utensils—Mixing bowl, small bowl (for eggs), 2 measuring cups, teaspoon, tablespoon, eggbeater, griddle, cake-turner, swab or piece of cheesecloth to rub the griddle with.

Directions—Pour the milk over the bread crumbs and let them stand 10 minutes. Add the butter or oil and molasses and well-beaten egg. Sift the flour, baking powder and salt into the mixture; mix well and bake on hot griddle until nice and brown. The molasses is put in to make them nice and brown and the butter is to make them short.

CHICKEN BROTH PLAIN OR WITH RICE.

Materials—Back, neck, wings and giblet, small onion, 1 teaspoon salt and a dash pepper.

Utensils—Two-quart saucepan, knife, teaspoon, wire strainer.

Directions—Cut and wash the chicken, put on with 6 cups cold water, onion, salt and pepper; boil slowly 2½ hours. Strain the stock; serve plain or add ½ cup boiled rice and a well-beaten egg. The pickings are used for the creamed chicken for supper.

STEWED CHICKEN WITH LIGHT BISCUIT.

Materials—Thighs, drumsticks, breast of chicken, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon flour, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 celery top, fresh or dried.

Utensils—Two-quart boiler and sauce-pan.

Directions—Cut the breast into 4 pieces, the 2 thighs and 2 drumsticks are put into 2-quart saucepan with just enough boiling water to cover. Boil 1 hour; then add salt and boil until tender. Time depends on age of chicken. (At this time of the year stewing chickens takes longer than in the fall.) When tender add flour which has been mixed with cold water. This should be 2 cups of gravy. Sprinkle with parsley. Either 8 small biscuit or rice, instead of potatoes.

NOTE—The chicken can be divided as told in the two foregoing recipes, and all boiled in one boiler and the stock taken off for the soup. The part that is going to be used for creamed chicken for evening, pickled white hot, one will find it is easier to pick. The biscuit can be made the day before, if desired, and put around the edge of the platter, and the hot gravy poured over or 1 cup of rice can be boiled and blanched and put around instead of potatoes.
